COMMUNITY SERVICE AND VOLUNTEER ACTIVITIES

Center for Growth, PC

I serve as a therapist and supervisor at the Center for Growth, focusing on offering quality depth psychotherapy services to clients with limited financial resources.

Dissertation Consultant

I have served as a committee member and consulting roles on dissertations at the Forest Institute of Professional Psychology and Regent University.

Public Speaking

I have spoken on a volunteer basis for a number of organizations on topics relevant to psychology, therapy, and mental health.

STUDENT WRITING MENTORING

An important emphasis in my faculty role has been on mentoring students in professional writing and engagement in the professional community. As part of this, I have worked to include students on writing projects whenever possible. Below is a summary of the mentoring roles indicating the number of different students I have co-authored papers with in each category as well as the total number of papers for each category.

	Number of Students	Number of Publications
Book Chapters	17	20
Journal Articles	9	9
Conference Papers	36	62
Published Book Reviews	8	8

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

My teaching experience includes a variety of approaches, styles, and mediums of teaching. The primary pedagogy which influences my teaching philosophy is Student Centered Learning. This has led to my development of many web and technology based teaching resources, including a comprehensive teaching website. My background includes traditional lecture, seminar, and experiential classes, in addition to having taught online classes.
